Volume VIII 1974

Dedication

The 1974 Falcon Yearbook is respectfully dedicated to the memory of Janet Stallworth and Jerry Palaisa.

The echo of their laughter and spirit will forever linger in the memories of their fellow classmates, the graduating class of 1974.

Jerry Palaisa

Death Be Not Proud

Death, be not proud, though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadful, for thou art not so;
For those whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow
Die not, poor Death; nor yet canst thou kill me.
From rest and sleep, which but thy pictures be,
Much pleasure; then from thee much more must flow;
And soonest our best men with thee do go —
Rest of their bones and souls' delivery!
Thou'rt slave to fate, chance, king, and desperate men,
And dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell;
And poppy or charms can make us sleep is well
And better than thy stroke. Why swell'st thou then?
One short sleep past, we woke eternally,
And Death shall be no more: Death, thou shalt die.

by,

John Donne

Alma Mater

Alma mater, now we sing to thee.
Hear our voices blend in our pledge.
Let us honor thee in future days
and reward you with our deeds.
Loyal we will be;
Faith we pledge to thee,
Now we bid farewell to thee.

With common goals and common longings, we laughed, we loved, we played, we won. Those were our school days, our happy days. They were real because we made them real. They were alive because we existed.

And then, as suddenly as they had dawned they faded into the less carefree days of adulthood. And finally they are now gone . . . those happy days in school.

Around the corner are the unknown days of tomorrow. Who knows the future that they will bring.

Nostalgia is . . .

to bid farewell.

We've had our time together;
We knew it had to end.
We've seen all sorts of weather
And found another friend.
We've laughed a lot together,
And now it's time to cry.
So go and God be with you.
Goodbye!

To one of my best friends. Remember all the fun we had in Ol' Man Mazocco's room in eighth grade + all the goofy + crazy events we were part of in our last year at Redstone. Don't forget January 2nd of last year or what went on that day. (Even if we did get hell for it.) Remember all the fights we've pulled ourselves through and came out even better friends? (At least, I think we did.) Remember all the cries we had together (Jack-Tim, Larry-Champ, Chum-Darrell) Even remember the crazy date we had at camp (you know who on Friday + MMWAA!!! on Saturday) It would be nice if we'd see Greg Kane + them again. I sure miss the BOOZE!!! Never had any that good! Before I go one, hope your arm gets better soon. I need a tennis partner. Maybe you + Gregg + me + whoever can go to Kennywood sometime in July or August. (Those are 1 Price Day Months - the only time I'll probably get to go.) Just think - in a few years when you're married + have your second little girl, you can name her after me. (Still have everything if you do. Nothing's too good for my name sake. Know what I mean?) Hey, while we're remembering
